August 13, 1343

Plantation Singers On WTHT Tonight

Miss Marquerite Daly of New York, lyric soprano, will be guest

York, lyric soprano, will be guest soloist on the Plantation Singers broadcast over WTHT this evening at 9:15. Also appearing on the program will be Luritz Creque, young Negro violinist of Morehouse Collegiate Center at Center

Center at Glastonbury. Miss Daly will also be guest soloist on the Great Sings program to be held on The held on The Hartford Times

Miss Daly

Hartford Times portice Aug. 26 at 8 p. m., when some 200 Negro singers from 14 Connecticut tobacco plantations, including a group of Jamaicans, will present a program of spirituals, folk songs and hymns She will appear jointly, as guest soloist, with the Giee Club of the Griffin-Fuller Farms at Broadbrook at the Union Services Vesper Sing on the Central Green in Rockville this Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

ning at 8 o'clock.

These programs are under the leadership of the Rev. Furman Fordham, member of the summer staff of the Connecticut Council staff of the Connecticut Council of Churches, Accompanist at the broadcast tonight will be Miss Lila Morgan of the Juillard Institute of Music in New York, Miss Daly will sing William Lawrence's "Let Us Break Bread Together," the spiritual made famous by Marion Anderson on the "I Am an American" day program at Central Park in New York.

York.

Mr. Creque will play "Csardas" by Monti and "Nobody Knows de Trouble I've Seen" by Clarence Cameron White. The public is invited to attend the broadcast, at Asylum Hill Congregational Church assembly, 814 Asylum Ave.

Museum #991943 p15